

Dear Jane A. Client:

It's said that anything worth doing is worth doing well.

We agree. If you're going to spend your hard-earned money on commercial janitorial services, you should spend it well, with a firm that goes above and beyond vacuuming, mopping, and dusting.

At Kelly Commercial Janitorial Services, going above and beyond is what we do. How? By offering:

Unparalleled customer service

We're here for you 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – only a phone call away.

The highest quality

We carefully select and train only the best employees to serve our clients.

Competitive rates

Our rates are comparable to other janitorial services that don't offer the same personalized customer care and high-quality service as we do. That means that Kelly Commercial Janitorial Services is the best value for your money!

Here's what some of our current clients have to say about us:

"Kelly Commercial Janitorial Services is always prompt and their work is spectacular. I'm a general contractor, and Kelly Commercial often finds ways to make me more money with clients. When they see extra work that needs to be done, they take the initiative to do it."

--Dennis Basile, Always Affordable Inc.

"We have found Kelly Commercial to be priced within the industry standards. What sets them apart is their attention to small details. When our day begins it is refreshing to find our facility clean, deodorized and ready for business. With well over 500 people through our facility daily this is not an easy task. We feel confident in our recommendation for Kelly Commercial Janitorial Services."

--Dwayne Dean, Dean Fence & Gate

"Kelly Commercial Janitorial Services' customer service has been excellent – only one small issue has ever come up, and Abby came right out personally to fix it. And the quality of their service is first-rate, too; I have and will continue to recommend Kelly Commercial Janitorial Services to anyone who needs commercial cleaning services."

--Randy Gatewood, Gatewood Enterprises
