

Front side

Photographers are leaving independent labs like yours for big Internet labs that offer online proofing, ecommerce, and automated print ordering solutions.

PLUG THE DRAIN ON YOUR CUSTOMERS – WITH PICTOLOGY PROLABS

Back side

With Pictology ProLabs, you can offer the same online proofing, ecommerce, and automated print ordering solutions that the big Internet labs do – and it's free to set up.

Use Pictology ProLabs to:

- Retain your current customers – and attract new ones
- Simplify your workflow
- Automate invoice processing
- Eliminate FTP errors
- Earn more – as a ProLabs Partner, Pictology pays you
- Market your business to more photographers – for free

It's free and easy to get started

IPI Member Ron Dyar says about Pictology ProLabs: “The biggest benefit of ProLabs is that it has allowed me to offer the same services as the big Internet labs – so my photographers keep their business with me. But it's also allowed me to do so much more – including add a new revenue stream to my business. All with no set-up fees.”

CONTACT US TODAY!

On March 31st, we'll be giving our current photographers the opportunity to choose a lab from the list of our ProLabs Partners. Ensure that your lab is on that list by contacting Pictology today!
